To Whom It May Concern,

I would like to recommend the services of Vision Group to any prospective clients.

They have worked on the CIMA account from January 2008 and we have just signed them up for a second term due to the high standard of work we received from them.

Vision Group has aligned their activities to our global strategy seamlessly and, even more importantly, has consistently achieved appropriate coverage. Indeed, they have smashed their targets on several occasions and have been very helpful in setting up business meetings and advising on how to tailor information to the Polish market.

Yours faithfully
